Bibliogov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 42 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed the Southwestern Pennsylvania Heritage Preservation Commissions Americas Industrial Heritage Project (AIHP), focusing on: (1) AIHP total costs and funding; (2) AIHP project development and how AIHP projects relate to the National Park Services national priorities list; and (3) who is responsible for future AIHP project operation and maintenance. GAO found that: (1) although the Commission has not defined the number, size, and cost of AIHP projects, the total project cost is estimated at 355 million; (2) between 1989 and 1993, Congress appropriated 63 million for AIHP, of which 40 million was for planning, design, construction, and administration costs; (3) additional contributions from nonfederal entities have totalled 32 million; (4) AIHP project development recommendations come from individuals, the community, the Commission, and technical advisory groups; (5) the Commission is authorized to fund projects within the Park Services control as long as they fit into the overall theme of AIHP and are included in the general management plan; (6) there is no funding or developmental relationship between AIHP projects and the Park Services national project priorities list; (7) although nonfederal entities will operate and maintain completed AIHP projects located on nonfederal land, federal funding will be needed for 5 years to operate AIHP projects; (8) the Park Service will operate and maintain AIHP projects within its control using federally appropriated funds; (9) it is uncertain who will be responsible for the future management, operation, and maintenance of AIHP projects after the Commissions term expires in 1998; and (10) the Commission favors the establishment of a not-for-profit corporation to resolve future management problems, but it has not made a final decision on how to sustain projects for...
