

San Francisco's Finest: Gunning for the Zodiac

By Joseph Covino Jr

Epic Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 328 pages. FOR EVERY ACTION, THERES A REACTION. UNSAVORY DAVE IS THE REACTION! SAN FRANCISCO'S FINEST: GUNNING FOR THE ZODIAC, a suspense crime thriller novel, speculates about what might happen if the original investigating officer in charge of the infamous ZODIAC KILLER case was a Dirty Harry-LIKE police detective. With the grisly murder of a famous true crime writer and author of Zodiac books, former San Francisco homicide inspector, Dave Toski, aka Unsavory Dave, is called out of retirement to consult with two Italian city detectives, Moretti and Marino(aka the M and Ms), trying to track down a latter-day Zodiac Killer, who may or may not be a copycat. At the same time, the city is plagued by a separate series of serial crimes committed by a rogue gang of Black Muslims trying to extort control of the very private security company employing Toski as its operations director. Past and Present collide once the black serial criminals are themselves stalked by this erstwhile serial killer. From its shocking commencement to its explosive conclusion, this novel advances a tantalizingly fresh new theory about the real-life Zodiac Killer, which could conceivably guide present-day investigators to finally uncover and...
