Not illustrated. 1823 Excerpt: . happiness of seeing those very people in the full vigour of strength, and without, to my knowledge, the loss of one single life from want of food. The promptitude with which the people of England answered the call of charity, and the celerity with which your Committee organised the distribution of the funds to the most distant points, were truly wonderful. These funds were the first which reached this part of the country; and my firm belief is, that that first distribution did save many lives. At a Meeting of the Nobility, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kerry, 22d October, 1822, The High Sheriff presiding, Resolved, --That the grateful thanks of the County of Kerry, assembled pursuant to requisition by the High Sheriff, be returned to our illustrious fellow-subjects of Great Britain, who, in the late calamitous sufferings of the south and west of Ireland, promptly pressed forward, and with splendid and unparalleled munificence saved our famishing peasantry from imminent and inevitable destruction. Resolved, --That the grateful thanks of this County be returned specially to the benevolent Chairman of the London Tavern Association, John Smith, Esq. M.P. who, with his generous associates, through the whole season of Irish calamity, devoted, with unconquerable perseverance, the labours of his mind and body to this noble work of mercy, and by his wisdom and energy eminently contributed to the judicious and successful appropriation of British benevolence. From Kcan Mahony, Esq. Cahersiveen, County of Kerry, 12tk November,...
