Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This book belongs, in the words of Henning Mankell, in the shadowy world where history and imagination merge . It was a sunny Saturday lunchtime in June 1944. Most of the inhabitants of a sleepy village situated in the Free Zone of war-ravaged France were sitting down to a leisurely meal. Without warning, an attachment of Das Reich soldiers (the elite force of the Nazi s Waffen-SS division) arrived. Hours later, 642 defenceless people had been massacred; their homes were smouldering ruins. From these embers emerged true, life-affirming stories of survival as individuals defied machine-guns, snipers, explosives and burning buildings to escape the clutches of the deadly wolf s hook. Aimed at 12+ readers, Wolf s Hook is a factionalised account of the Das Reich attack on an innocent village. It recaptures the essence of what happened that day, using four first-person narrative strands: a waiter, a young boy, an SS soldier and a grandmother. Through their eyes we see the terrifying day unravel. (!!Author s warning: for 12+; this is the same book and text as Murder to Music but with a different cover!!).
