No, let us rather humbly follow his example, and continually turn to God with contrition for our offences; gratitude for the blessings vouchsafed to us; and earnest and daily renewed endeavours to draw nearer to Him, by thankfully accepting all the means of grace He is every moment extending to us, and seconding them by our own efforts, weak and feeble as the best of those efforts may be. When you lie down to rest, then, my dear children, consider the state in which your soul might appear before God, should He be pleased to summon it away before the morning, and briefly, but solemnly, ask yourself-- What sin have I this day committed in thought, word, or deed? What opportunity of doing good to others, or improving myself, have I neglected? Have I tried to subdue my habitual faults of temper, or any other evil I may be most prone to? Have I been reverent to my Maker in my prayers, and my thoughts, and my speech? Have I desired to please Him, and kept His glory and goodness before my eyes? Have I been dutiful and obedient to my parents and teachers? Have I been kind to my brothers, or sisters, or companions? Have I endeavoured to cultivate an humble, patient, and submissive spirit in myself, to practise cheerfulness and meekness, to promote peace, and love and good-will among those around me, to forgive others, as...
