Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Fall of England?: The Fall of the Battle of Dorking; Reminiscences of a Volunteer You ask me to tell you, my grandchildren, something about my own share in the great events that happened fifty years ago. Tis sad work turning back to that bitter page in our history, but you may perhaps take profit in your new homes from the lesson it teaches. For us in England it came too late. And yet we had plenty of warnings, if we had only made use of them. The danger did not come on us unawares. It burst on us suddenly, tis true; but its coming was foreshadowed plainly enough to open our eyes, if we had not been wilfully blind. We English have only ourselves to blame for the humiliation which has been brought on the land. Venerable old age! Dishonourable old age, I say, when it follows a manhood dishonoured as ours has been. I declare, even now, though fifty years have passed, I can hardly look a young man in the face when...

Reviews

A must buy book if you need to adding benefit. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Its been designed in an exceptionally easy way in fact it is only after i finished reading this publication where in fact modified me, alter the way in my opinion.

-- Prof. London Gerlach

Simply no terms to explain. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Its been written in an remarkably easy way and is particularly merely soon after i finished reading this book where basically changed me, affect the way i really believe.
