Mr. Nary: The Story of How Grady Thoms Got Published (Paperback)

By Roo Carmichael

RCPress, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Using newfound inspiration, camping gear salesman Grady Thoms is attempting to write a novel. He has a plot. He has a strong protagonist. Unfortunately, he has no clue. Bill Williams, a publisher who was unwittingly targeted by Grady, begins to find his attempts at prose amusing. (page 63) To: Bill Williams From: Grady Thoms Subject: Similes for Mr Nary Bill, as I continue on in my book, I realize the need for even more rich imagery. Yesterday I dedicated six hours creating similes in case I come to another spot in my book where I need to spice things up. If a simile occasion arises, I can go through the roster and insert the one that fits best. Here are a few. His arms and shoulders itched, like when you try on a sweater at a thrift store. They stumbled upon some bad luck, like when two beautiful people make an ugly baby. He started to cough and gag the way a kid does when he eats insulation thinking it was cotton candy. Chuck Nary s fighting skills were as ferocious as a lioness, but not quite...

Reviews

Merely no terms to explain. it was actually writtern quite properly and helpful. I realized this pdf from my dad and i suggested this ebook to discover.
