Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from War and Sport in India, 1802-1806: An Officer s Diary The gallant Officer who wrote the Diary was born in 1778, and sailed from England in 1801 to join the forces Of the Honourable East India Company. A brief review of the political aspect Of India at that period may serve to bring the events narrated into historical perspective. The Mahrattas were then the most formidable of all the native powers with whom the Company had been in contact. During the two previous centuries they had gradually extended their inroads into the territories of the decaying Mogul Empire until they had possessed themselves of several large provinces, while their armies, though often defeated, returned as Often to ravage the land and to extort tribute throughout the greater part of India. The English, whose main Object had been to guard their own trade and domains in Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, had sometimes combined with other native states to repel them, but more frequently had been associated with them or with sections of their tribe in Order to maintain a balance of power between the1 introduction.
