When Samantha flies to Italy to gain distance from a disastrous affair with her childhood best friend, the last thing on her mind is romance. But Teo Anderson is nothing like her philandering ex-husband or her sailing buddy, Jack, who, despite his live-in girlfriend, caught her off guard with his flashing black eyes. Teo has his own scars, both physical and emotional, that he represses by writing mysteries until one strange and compelling vision comes to life in the person of Sam. Seeking answers, he offers friendship to this obviously hurting woman, a friendship that threatens to upend his fragile peace of mind. But not even sailing the cobalt waters of the Mediterranean can assuage Sams guilt for destroying Jacks relationship and hurting another woman. Soon the consequences of her behavior escalate, and the fallout threatens them all. Sailing out of Darkness is the haunting story of mistakes and loss. . . and the grace that abounds through forgiveness. This item ships from multiple locations.
