Excerpt from The Oration and the Poem on the 200th Anniversary of the Resistance to the Andros Tax: At Ipswich, July 4, 1887 Five years ago we met to honor the memory of one of our early settlers who had rendered valiant service to the town and the colony, Maj. Gen. Daniel Dennison. Two years later we gathered on the Meeting House Green and paid tribute to those sturdy men who broke the wilderness and commenced the plantation which soon after was organized as a town. And to - day, on the anniversary of our National Independence, we meet again to celebrate the bold stand taken by Ipswich, two hundred years ago when the inhabitants in legal meeting assembled, enunciated the doctrine that there was no right of taxation without representation, and to commemorate the lofty courage and watchful patriotism of the leaders in that historical transaction. This is an appropriate day on which to refresh ourselves with those events, for they were the shadows and premonitions of our Independence. They were the handwritings on the King's wall which to...
