Blurb, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Four mind-bending short stories are presented in a collection. If you like the supernatural or psychological thrillers, you will enjoy these delightfully chilling pieces that bend your perceptions. Anna the Mouse is the opening piece but don't let the innocent title fool you. The protagonist, Lisabelle slowly becomes aware of a talking mouse that no one else can see. She learns that it is linked to a secret in her past. In Bert the main character is a hardened secret agent who specializes in pulling information from his subjects. He is usually the one to hold all the cards, until he meets Bert. Little Nelle is about a therapist, Pete. His job is to help people come to terms with reality, until one day he is faced with something he can't comprehend. Princess Eliza finds herself in a changing world and forced into arrangements she can't agree with. Backed into a corner, the legend of The Wolf Girl is born.
