Destinworld Publishing Ltd, United Kingdom, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Madrid is the very heart of Spain. It is the cultural centre and the capital, from where traditions and history spring forth throughout the land. It is a city built upon Arab foundations from the 9th century, with grand buildings and hidden corners. Madrid is one of Europe s most beautiful cities, which has successfully advanced into a metropolis, but retained its historic architecture and attractions. This book takes you on a journey through centuries of Madrid s history via a series of walks. Each one is themed, from medieval buildings to historic wine taverns. Find out where artists and writers gathered, and uncover many of the mysteries around Madrid s past. At the end of your day, eat, drink or sleep in one of the suggested historic restaurants, taverns or hotels. -Clear maps, times and distances -Plan your walk by theme -Museum and building opening times -Historic eating, drinking and hotel suggestions -Personal guidance from the author.
