Paul Felton is an 1822 novella by Richard Henry Dana, Sr. (1787-1879) combining romance, murder, and elements of the supernatural. The book offers a distinctly American take on the Gothic literary tradition, re-imagining America s unsettled landscape as a site of temptation and minions of evil. Originally published in Dana s literary journal The Idle Man, Paul Felton has not been published in wide distribution in modern times. This edition, with a new prologue and minor commentary, opens the door to new scholarship and understanding on this book.
