Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The Writer loves to turn her ideas into stories. There s nothing better than creating an exciting plot and bringing different characters to life. They come from the stardust elements born within all of us. Stardust elements are special powers and talents that inspire us. You must look deep within to find them; when you do, they bring out wonderful ideas. Writer, however, is having trouble turning her stardust into words. In this creative and engaging guide, The Writer-assisted by her favorite character, Star Girl-takes you on her journey to rediscover the basics of storytelling. She explains the initial process of choosing a topic, discovering new ideas, and mapping plot points. Through various forms of literature-novella, poetry, and an interactive play-The Writer and Star Girl also demonstrate how to create characters and overcome the common anxiety writers experience when bringing their stories to life. Additionally, diverse talented storytellers and characters appear to share their writing inspirations. You too can discover your inner stardust and writing talent by following along with helpful exercises and prompts. Learn to shine like a star and let your voice be heard!.
