So Robin let him have both barrels. Quit running to me with every little issue for goodness sake. Think outside the box! In fact, just try thinking for yourself for once, whether it s in the box or not!! Robin Hood is the frustrated owner of the Steel and Pour Company that will only get poorer unless someone shows him how to deal appropriately with troublesome staff members. Fortunately Robin s older brother Ernie has some sage advice for his sibling, but is it too late for this old dog to learn a new trick or two? Glen Sharkey delivers years of facilitating leadership development in a very readable format. But don t be fooled by the simplicity of the medium - there is absolute gold in these pages for people who struggle with finding the right tone when dealing with difficult people.
