

You the Man: A One-Man Performance Addressing Bystanders (Paperback)

By Cathy Plourde

Add Verb Publications, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Annotated edition. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Featuring both the US and the Australian acting versions of You the Man, Add Verb Productions one-man show on engaging bystanders to address and interrupt dating violence and sexual assault. This never-before released script is accompanied by dramaturgical notes for actors and directors and a comprehensive production guide. You the Man script and guide benefitted from Add Verb s fifteen years experience of presenting theatre for awareness, wellness, and activism to middle schools, high schools, colleges, conferences, and medical professionals across the US as well as in Australia. The play brings six characters to the stage: a young man, a teacher, and a father who are concerned with a young woman s wellbeing and safety; a police officer who wants to bring justice to victims; a ball player whose world is now compromised by the violence of a teammate; and, an advice-giving speaker who uses humor to underscore his serious message of empathy and action. The program keeps the safety and agency of victims--no matter their gender--front and center, and acknowledges the wide-sweeping effects of interpersonal violence. The approach of this...
