Excerpt from Travellers Colloquial French: A Handbook for English-Speaking Travellers and Students; Idiomatic French Phrases, With the Exact Phonetic Pronunciation The need of a handy little book giving ordinary colloquialisms, and carefully indicating the pronunciation, is abundantly shown by the fact of the immediate favour with which this little work has been received - dve editions having been already exhausted. The author has taken the Opportunity to make it useful to an extended public by the addition of phrases for Cyclists and for Amateur Photographers. The Railway and General Information has been carefully revised and brought up to date. A suggestion by the author for a means of preventing Sea-sickness during the crossing is also given, which many persons have found successful. A few notes on the best Methods of Learning Languages have been added at the end. German and Italian handbooks on the same plan are now obtainable.
