LOVES, KERBSIDES AND GOODBYES: A BACKPACKER S ROAD (PAPERBACK)

Thomas Clarke Publishing, Australia, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This experiential account captures the character of budget journeys where kerbsides are backpackers theatres to meet, fall in love, say goodbye. Kerbsides are their platforms to perform, strumming guitars outside China tea houses to crowds venerating them like rock stars, busking for drinks on Kuala Lumpur sidewalks. It does not cover disappointing destinations, lost luggage, travel cancellations or bad wine but catches the heat, cold, discomfort, discovery and exhilaration of life on the road. There are not the saccharine accounts of travel writers on airline freebies. Instead, there are freezing nights on Mongolian roadsides waiting for rides, struggling to catch a cargo boat on the Rio Napo, drugged fruit juice in Istanbul, frying in a Pakistan border heatwave, robbed in Romania and frugal hostel Christmases. These backpackers journey cheaply through Eastern Europe, the Middle East, Russia, Central and South East Asia, the Sub Continent and South America partying hard and travelling even harder. There s Indian, Chinese and Thai police interrogations; drugs and backpacking hedonism; frustrations and brief relationships on long, overland journeys. There s the adrenalin of high mountain voids, the satisfaction of saving a Swiss life in deathly Sub Continent heat and the close attention of Chinese police.
