Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A boss/secretary, marriage of convenience , Cinderella romance Meg It s not easy to reinvent yourself, but my thirteen-year-old son and I are ready for a new start. Old Maggie was a magnet for disaster, but New Meg is going to be elegant, sophisticated. and blonde. I ve landed a dream job at the other end of New Zealand as PA to three rich directors who spoil me rotten, I ve found a beautiful new apartment, and I feel reborn. Then I write an email to a friend describing in vivid detail what I want to do to the sexiest of the directors-involving melted chocolate and/or whipped cream-and mistakenly send it to All Staff. It turns out that New Meg is pretty much just Old Maggie with different packaging. Some things never change. Stratton I ve wanted Meg since she first walked into my office with her soft lips and sexy curves, but she wears another man s ring, so I ve steered well clear. until now. My mind s been occupied anyway since I broke up with my ex,...
