Reviews

This is an awesome publication which i have actually read. This is certainly for all who statte that there was not a well worth reading through. Its been designed in an extremely straightforward way and it is merely after i finished reading this ebook in which actually changed me, affect the way in my opinion.

KNOWLEDGE AND ILLUSTRATED SCIENTIFIC NEWS, VOL. 1: JANUARY TO DECEMBER, 1904 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Knowledge and Illustrated Scientific News, Vol. 1: January to December, 1904 And not only did the scenery change as they drifted on, but the fiery heats of summer were succeeded by the violent autumn storms, and then the winter crept steadily and remorselessly on. The surface of the river one morning was Spangled with patches of ice. Then a fringe of ice crept out day after day further from the banks, and the air was full of murmurs from the grinding ice, but there was still time to go many miles before the passage was blocked completely by the ice. Then winter quarters were formed, and the caravan, which had made the long journey by land, was successfully joined. Never, writes Dr. Hedin, was a journey of that magnitude carried through so comfortably and so successfully. And we believe him, for with little danger and with no great difficulty for so resourceful and intrepid an explorer, 3. Thousand miles of a practically unknown river was most minutely investigated in the. Space of some three months. Dr. Hedin is not one to rest on his oars. No sooner had he got his winter quarters comfortably arranged than he started out on a perilous journey southwards across the Takla Makan Desert to Cherchen, situated on the river of that name. This desert journey in the middle of a very hard winter, with temperatures of many degrees below zero, and frequent blinding snow-storms, was a very trying piece of work, but it was accomplished with the loss of only one camel. After an excursion to the south-west from Cherchen, which involved a very cold ride of 200 miles, Dr. Hedin brought his caravan back...
