By Paula Cappa

Crispin Books, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A powerful page-turner-enigmatic, surprising, and completely engaging . . . a wild ride over dangerous and previously uncharted terrain. - JAMES HULBERT, author of A Kiss Before You Leave Me. A startling story that captures the reader from the first page, with strong character development and a robust vocabulary. Cappa s characters are the kind the reader remembers long after the story has ended. - JUDITH REVEAL, author of The Brownstone. Night Sea Journey is a tale of the supernatural, a quiet horror novel with paranormal apparitions, plenty of romance, psychological twists-and murder. Kip Livingston lives alone in Abasteron House on Horn Island and is a talented painter with an inspired imagination. But she is haunted by a dark nocturnal visitor. Each night while Kip sleeps, a winged creature with greedy teeth invades her dreams and drags her to the bottom of a ghost-grey sea. For help, she turns to exiled priest Raymond Kera, who falls for her seductive charms. Can Raymond save her from this dream demon? Or will Kip have to save herself? From the author of The Dazzling...
