Derek Moffat just wants the good life. What he has is a crack whore of a wife, a single wide trailer, and no future. Until his brother offers him an opportunity for easy money as an employee of Lilith Corporation delivering pharmaceuticals. The company is clearly a front for a drug cartel, but Derek doesn't care. This is his chance, and he's not about to let it pass him by. But Lilith Corporation is more than a drug cartel. Founded by Satan, managed by demons, souls are traded as easily as highs. Turns out Derek is no ordinary worker. Crossed by his bosses, his chances of making employee of the month go straight out the window along with his humanity.
