DEATH ON WINTER S EVE is the highly charged romantic thriller about forbidden desire, unbridled passion, and callous betrayal set amidst the background of war torn London in the 1940 s! Serving in a British military hospital in London during the Second World War nurse Mary Wellington has no inkling she is about to come face to face with the mysterious stranger who nightly invades her dreams. When a badly wounded airman is brought into Lieutenant Wellington s care at Queen Anne s Hospital she has no idea he is a man whose very presence will place her on a path to exotic romance, dark intrigue and mortal danger. Initially intrigued by the airman s uncanny resemblance to the man in her dreams Mary is infatuated by his unerring ability to anticipate her every emotion. But the dashing American airman is anything except whom he appears to be. Ripped from the twenty-first century he is literally a man out of time, unwittingly the key in a German espionage plot to sabotage the Allied invasion of Europe. Placing her life...
