

Lyrical and Lovely Thoughts: Poems (Paperback)

By J. Kirby Smith

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.It s not for me to say exactly how bad or good this poetry is, that of course would be pretentious. I have to say and must say, however that I feel this is at least very authentic verse. Almost all it rhymes, yet, I like to think it has a voice and attempts a kind of mellifluous flow, if you will It s been very painful over the years, to witness insincere pseudo poetry sometimes thrive because of its author s name recognition while someone like myself with no public saliency is ignored by so called traditional publishers. Therefore, I m giving it one shot with AuthorHouse and will, if not successful, go back to being merely a pauper, a peasant, a pawn and a poker player! In the opening poem, The Vicissitude of the Storm, the gossamer threads represent spider webs blowing in the wind. If I ve ever accidentally written a perfect poem, that would be The Season, in this column. It s not a very long poem but the alliteration, I like to think creates an astonishingly nuanced yet...
