More than often, people are judged, criticized, and ridiculed by others. It is an effortless act to acknowledge and recognize the flaws and faults of another individual; however, it is grueling to admit and accept our own imperfections. This has become a serious problem in today s world among people but, it is possible to live life without this strained behavior. Intimate confessions are real life short story poems which deliver powerful and intriguing life lessons about the existent complications people face in life. Throughout each story, you will discover how lives are changed as each person battles to acknowledge their own personal faults and weaknesses. But by the hands of God, each obstacle has been overcome as revelations are encountered. I believe you too will be inspired as each confession will bring about new thoughts and changes in your life. Therefore, be prepared to challenge your own intimate confessions. Angel has a desire to encourage others to trust and depend on God for each area of their lives. She is best known for her unique writing style of inspirational poetry....
