

Normal High: Operation Teen-Aged Zombie Eradication (Paperback)

By Courtney Ballard

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Gothic mansion surrounded by a barbed-wire topped black metal fence is not your typical scene of teenage angst. But when you're talking about Normal High School, you might as well throw typical out the window. Something strange is happening to the students of this very strange school and newcomer Tessa Wallace has made it her mission to find out what that something is. When Tessa moved with her mom and sister to the sleepy little town of Normal, she had no idea how abnormal her life would become. That is until her older sister Trina began to change after starting at the local high school. Tessa's not buying that it's just a rebellious phase; not after she sees hundreds of high-schoolers acting the exact same way. But the closer she gets to the truth, the more dangerous things will become for everyone involved. Will she be able to find the answers in time, or will her sister become yet another victim of the high school's nefarious history?.
