Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the third and final Songshifting novel, musos, journo and punters unite to protest the impresario's ban on recorded music. Former music journo Rarity Dean is arrested and taken to the barge, the impresario's headquarters, where she suspects she's about to be tortured by agents Raguly and Nebuly. Songshifting: An audience with the impresario delivers everything a reader wants from the best of speculative fiction: a coherent world at once richly textured, vividly painted and centred on an idea that is both surprising and relatable - in this case the transporting power of music. OLIVER HARRIS, DEEP SHELTER, THE HOLLOW MAN, THE HOUSE OF FAME Songshifting occupies a unique place in modern fiction: a simple, elegiac story, fierce and uncompromising, it is at once a love letter to a forgotten era, a richly evoked dystopia, and an examination...
