Running Parallel

By Dayna S Rubin

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 330 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in.Harley and Kitty are an older couple trying to put the brakes on their strained marriage, setting up end of life strategies to retire in peace, but it is anything but that. As they find more out about themselves, their lives start to change. Uncertainty is their worst enemy and goal setting, reviews and planning stifle Kittys creativity. It appears they are at odds. Ending possibly, but may turn around to be a renewal. Through the help of the local newspaper, they work on solving a mystery that an undercover journalistCAT Team IC3 Agent has been writing about in the paper. Greg and Zamantha are engaged, planning to be married after having recently finished their last semester in college. They live in Wrigleyville with Martha, Trent and Race, who all juggle a delivery business for an absent friend while Zamantha concentrates her efforts at rising within a law firm. They are a young couple who are launching their careers and looking forward to starting their lives together. This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
