Excerpt: . . . the accounts of a large retail store. It is their business to make a record of the income and expenses of the company and to send out bills to customers. This is done so that there may be no waste in spending money and as little loss as possible in collecting what is due the store. The following pages contain the part of a bookkeepers work that every boy and girl should know in order to keep his or her own accounts. Give reasons why boys and girls, as well as business houses, should keep an accurate record of expenses. The account pictured below is a record of receipts and expenditures such as might be kept by the treasurer of a football team. On the left hand page are writkn the sums of money received during a month; on the right hand page, those...
