Hunter sighed. He felt a slight flutter in his stomach as the baby began to move. He rested a hand on his belly. Looks like someone just woke up. Can I feel? asked Melinda, her face brightened considerably as she leaned forward. I've been trying to keep from asking you questions all day, but I just can't hold back anymore. Hunter's heart swelled at the sight of the pure joy on his mother's face. She was ready to be a grandma. He couldn't have possibly denied her request. Three months ago, Hunter Kilder's entire life was torn apart when a freak accident rendered him an amnesiac. With his memories showing no signs of returning, he loses his job and finds himself teetering on the edge of homelessness. That's when not one, but two sexy alpha males from his past being trying to win his heart. Vincent is determined to win Hunter's love by any means necessary. Luke is much more interested in trying to earn Hunter's affection through friendship. Vincent goes to great lengths to try and turn Hunter against his rival, telling him horror stories about the way Luke used to treat him. Hunter is taken aback - he can't remember that past, and is reluctant to cut off one of his only friends. The romantic tension among the three comes to a head, and Vincent is forced to retreat. A new problem arises, however, when Hunter and Vincent sleep together - and Hunter discovers old wedding invitations hidden in Luke's apartment. When Hunter learns he's pregnant with Luke's child - even though he can't remember...
