Children hear their friends talk about how they hate their siblings, and how a new baby means their parents no longer love them. Chloe the Cocker Spaniel finds herself in that boat, when her mommy says they are getting a new baby. But she learns that a new brother or sister means there isn't less love, but more love to go around, and just how much fun being a big sister can be. Chloe would like to help teach your kids the same lesson, in a fun, easy to read book.
