The Debater, 1920 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Thomas J Lally

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Debater, 1920 Let us now turn to the industries of these early times. How absolutely different from the busy hurry and scurry of the modern industrial world. They could not depend upon importation. Everything had to be done with their own hands. The work of the men was - Clearing the forests, making the homes, building church and fort, planting and caring for the gardens, procuring and preparing the food, protecting their homes and their loved ones from the attacks of the savages - all these and a thousand other tasks kept busy the stalwart and plucky settlers of the early years. The women, also, had their share of work to accomplish. What would be the thoughts of a Pilgrim lady, could she be given one peep into the kitchen of today? - set tubs, running water, gas stoves, besides washing machines, electric irons, toasters, sweepers, etc.! Had the little Pilgrim lady had such luxuries, perhaps she would have had too much time to spare and would not have been so content, but as it was,...

Reviews

A really wonderful book with perfect and lucid information. I actually have studied it and I am sure that I am going to read through it once more yet again in the future. I am pleased to explain how this is actually the finest ebook we have studied inside my personal daily life and might be the finest book for at any time.
