

Blue Moon for Bombers: A Story of Love, War and Spirit (Paperback)

By Consultant in Psychological Medicine Jennifer Barraclough

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .England, July 2007. An old man in his hospital bed is haunted by memories of serving with Bomber Command in World War Two. Meanwhile back in his country home, the aftermath of his wartime trauma leads to rising tension among the two younger couples who are marooned indoors by the floods. With testimony from an unexpected visitor, and some guidance from the spirit world, the family's secrets are revealed and the emotional wounds begin to heal. Blue Moon for Bombers is the second book in the trilogy which began with Carmen's Roses and is completed with The Windflower Vibration . Readers say: Excellent strong plot . like a Victorian novel set in modern times Brilliant ending I couldn't put it down.
