It was founded, in 1842, by the Hon. Albert gallatin; for many years Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, who was elected its first President, and who continued to hold that office until his death, in 1849. He was the principal contributor to its Proceedings, and was the most active promoter of its Objects. These objects are: The prosecution of inquiries into the origin, progress, and characteristics of the various races of men, especially into the Origin and history of the aboriginal American nations, and the phenomena connected therewith; the diversity of languages, the remains of ancient art, and traces of ancient civilization in Mexico, Central America, and Peru; the arts, sciences, and mythology of the American nations; and the earth - works and other monuments of the United States. The Society, for the furtherance of its Objects, desires to enroll, in its list of members and correspondents, gentlemen of kindred tastes and studies in all parts of...
