Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Is Manitoba Right?: A Question in Ethics, Politics, Facts and Law; A Complete Historical and Controversial Review of the Manitoba School Question Up till the time at which the first portion of this review was published (about a year ago), no comprehensive or connected presentation of this important, question from the Manitoba standpoint, had been made. The only statements of the case professing to be exhaustive, which had then appeared, were ex parte assertions and arguments made on behalf of the so-called minority, and which, to the mind of the writer, appeared and still appear, inaccurate and misleading. It was with a view of controverting the contentions of the writers of the publications referred to, and of correcting any misapprehensions-which-might have been created by the inaccurate or distorted statements of fact which they contained, that the first part of this work was written. Since the time of its publication, much controversy has been waged on the subject of Manitoba s schools. The parliamentary discussion called forth by the effort of the Dominion Government to procure the enactment of remedial legislation, has disclosed the grounds and the arguments on which the government endeavors to justify its course on this question. These grounds are examined, and the arguments analyzed, in the second portion of this review. An effort has been made by the writer to give a full, lucid and connected statement of the question in controversy, while at the same time avoiding the citation of needless statistical matter or the quotation of irrelevant portions of legal or other documents. If the writer shall succeed in conveying a more accurate knowledge of the facts of the question, and a clearer apprehension of...
