AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Are you frustrated and confused over the way things are going in our Great Nation? I certainly am and wish to share with you what I consider is our best chance in the 2012 elections to get us back on track to restore this once Great Republic. This guide suits this format to allow portability so all of us can discuss at every opportunity. There is a desperate need to change how Congress does the people s business in Washington. You feel the same if you accept certain polls indicating their popularity level at around 10-12 . First we must eliminate the present culture in Congress by instituting term limits. This is the only way to remove the old dogs, with their insidious policies, who run The Senate and The House of Representatives. Once this is accomplished, only then can we force the new or incumbent Congress to alter how political campaigns are funded. We must return to a system where your favorite elected official actually speaks in your behalf, as opposed to following mandates dictated by special interests. There is a way to make these changes, if we have the will to cause it to happen. I strongly believe this is our last chance to re-set our course before Government gets so out of control we arrive at the eternal abyss and end up in the ash heap of history. Can we return to our once Great Republic by breaking free from the bonds that tie us to large banking and corporate interests? It has been said that a free press is the forth branch of Government, designed to keep the The Executive. Judicial and Legislative Branches under constant scrutiny. The so...
