Statement of case. ance--The Workingmen Will Give their Answer to This Diabolical Outrage To-morrow--The Closing Days of a Spirited Campaign. The Cobden Club of England has apparently become tired of trying to influence United States elections in behalf of democratic free-trade candidates by spending millions of dollars in the campaign here, and the friends of the free-trade claimant have had to hustle about Great Britain themselves to get the money which English manufacturers are willing to give up to buy votes for their friend Cleveland, and to kill their most hated enemy, McKinley Bill. The account of the raising abroad of a great corruption fund by protection America s enemies and free-trade Cleveland s friends, has just been cabled over. The London head of a large New York lirm of...
