Wunder. The son, Lewis G., received an appointment in the Philadelphia Post-Office under Postmaster Wright, 8 July, 1849, and continuously occupied positions in that office until the November preceding his death. He was made chief clerk under Postmaster Bingham in 1871, which place he held under Postmasters Bingham, Fairman, and Huidekoper, and for a portion of Mr. Harrity's term. In 1887 he was appointed superintendent of the Inquiry Division. Mr. Wunder had the reputation of being the best-informed man in the office, and all difficult questions were invariably referred to him. He was known to most of the business men of the city, and had their friendship. Children:...

Reviews

The best book i actually go through. It can be full of wisdom and knowledge Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Prof. Greg Herzog

This ebook is fantastic. It is actually written in straightforward terms rather than hard to understand. Its been designed in an extremely straightforward way and it is merely soon after i finished reading through this ebook through which in fact modified me, alter the way i really believe.
