Excerpt: . . . for fare on the cars of such railroad than that fixed by this bill, said railroad or such agent or such employe shall forfeit to the person who is thus overcharged the sum of one hundred dollars to be recovered in a civil action in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The plaintiff was a passenger on one of the cars of defendant on a continuous trip from the terminus of tramway on Nuuanu avenue in Honolulu, to Punahou street for which defendant was entitled to demand and charge a fare of five cents. The point raised by the defendant is that the plaintiff has failed to prove that he was charged or paid more than the fare of five cents for himself and that the evidence given at the trial did not support the judgment. It was strongly urged by counsel that excessive fare...
