Congressional Sales Office, 2002. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)51272911 Subject: Biological warfare -- Safety measures. Excerpt: . . . 11 ida and New York cases, where the letters were identified and those who may have been exposed were tested and treated. The CDC has done a good job of finding the letters in question and get-ting treatment to those at risk. The work of the CDC has likely saved many from serious illness and death. We have good science. But it is also, ladies and gentlemen, an evolving science. Remember, we have never had cases of anthrax attacks in this manner before. It is a new challenge that we are all facing. We also need to get ahead of the science. We will be even more, gentlemen, aggressive in securing the safety of our postal workers who may have been exposed to a tainted letter. CDC, the Union and the Postal authorities are meeting this afternoon in order to find ways to better secure the safety of all employees. Therefore, I am making it clear today to this committee and to the American public, the Centers for Disease Control, that when a case of anthrax does emerge, we will immediately move in at any and all postal facilities that might have handled that piece of mail. We will build a scientific link between the post office of the post-mark and the recipient of the letter. In other words, well not only immediately begin testing and treatment at the site where the letter was received, but simulta-neously begin testing and treatment at all postal facilities through...
