Booksurge Publishing, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Dot to Dot is a literary relay race revolving around one central theme: we are all connected. These connections may be seemingly insignificant - bumping into an old friend on the street, or passing a stranger in a hospital corridor - but they have the potential to alter the course of our lives, some slightly, others in more profound and lasting ways. The race begins with an embattled United States Senator and moves from character to character like wildfire: the Senator's disgraced wife and children; a motley crew of movers; a boy who takes matters into his own hands to save his mother and himself from her murderous boyfriend; a private detective whose past has come back to haunt him; a kindly police chief who helps a Mexican family; the Mexican family themselves who are desperate to get their kidnapped daughter back safe and sound; a country music singer who stumbles on fame after heartbreak; and, finally, a serial killer who has the tables turned on him by a very unlikely avenging angel. Simply put, Dot to Dot is a story about people - some extraordinary, some not, but all memorable and flawed in their own unique ways.
