

Time Split (Paperback)

By Professor Patricia Smith

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Reviews: A great read that was packed full of suspense and action. One of the best time travel books I ve read in awhile. I started reading this book and before I knew it, it was three in the morning. When I woke the next day I couldn t wait to get back to it because I had to know what happened. A scientist s harmless tinkering, just before World War II, causes a catastrophic change of events which lead to nuclear war in the present. 40 minutes into the war most of North America, Asia and Europe were destroyed. A cycle of annihilation, which once started became impossible to stop. The launch of missiles, detected by satellites, set the wheels in motion for the retaliatory strikes to begin. No nation escaped the cascade that followed; even those neutral in the war. Detonation was the only warning for most that things had escalated beyond reason as the use of thermo-weapons had never been discussed. A huge electromagnetic pulse, which fried all electrical equipment inside the strike zone, shut down power grids and...
