Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The year is 2262. Major technological advances, teleportation and a radical stringent way of governing have reversed a broken and rapidly declining society, creating a relative paradise. The world is recovering after millions perished in World War III. Could a long standing stalemate with Russia soon be coming to an end? Simon Kingsley s recent promotion to the Northampton Museum of Humanity as an Educational Historian, means he has a new start, in a new city, and can put the embarrassment of the damaging incident in Bristol behind him. Can he stay out of trouble this time and keep those closest to him safe? Will he keep his sexual urges and appetite under control? Hillary Jane is a beautiful, yet dominant and powerful woman entrenched within the government. Her main objective is lasting world-wide peace with Russia. She is determined to succeed at any cost and won t let anything or anyone get in her way. Can the new team she s assembled close in on the traitor from within? Will they sever the leak to the press that threatens to thwart her goal? At home her sexual desires and indiscretions have so far been kept between her and her devoted fiance. Can she keep them that way and out of the press? How far would she go to keep her reputation intact? When fate throws Simon and Hillary Jane together one night in New York, a chain of events is unleashed that will destroy one of them and jeopardise the precarious peace process. Only the stronger of the two will retain their reputation and rank; the other will fall into the claws of the vulturous press. A mysterious old grey man...
