

Securing U.S. Diplomatic Facilities and Personnel Abroad Legislative and Executive Branch Initiatives CRS Reports

By Congressional Research Service

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 30 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.1in. The September 11, 2012, attack on U. S. facilities in Benghazi, Libya, prompted sustained congressional attention on the specific circumstances of the events in question, as well as broader questions regarding how U. S. diplomatic personnel and facilities abroad are secured. Ensuring that the Department of State is better prepared for the possibility of similar attacks in the future has been a central congressional concern. The Department of State undertook a number of measures in response to the attack, including immediate steps to bolster security at posts around the world; an investigation of the boards recommendations, including requests for significantly greater funding than in recent years. Congress has conducted oversight through investigations by a number of committees and through a number of hearings. The House of Representatives voted to create a select committee on the Benghazi attack on May 8, 2014; the committee held its first hearing on September 17, 2014. Members have also put forward legislative proposals on issues ranging from the composition of Accountability Review Boards to...
