Souper Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 284 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. The Journals of The Big Mouth Bass - Promises Can Ruin Your Life is book two of five, are a child's Journals to God. Debbie is the main character and was given the name The Big Mouth Bass by her brother for not being able to keep a secret as revealed in book Keeping Secrets. Having a terrible nick name can sometimes be a gift. Debbie writes about her life experiences and the lessons she learns from them in her journal so that she can share with God. Some of the other lessons in her journals are everyday challenges kids have like being teased, making friends and learning the difference between making good choices and making bad choices. They are funny at times and heart breaking at others. Debbie also shares her feelings about these lessons in her journals. Her journals lend a little understanding to the way parents and kids think and where the conflict between both comes in but more importantly where the understanding takes over the conflict. Debbie is a tom boy at heart who longs to have a girl friend to share her secrets with. This is her biggest conflict because for her to have girlfriends she has to be willing to do the things that girls like to do and she hates the things that girls like to do. She also refuses to part with her high top sneakers and jeans. She protests at the mere sight of a dress and protests even more when she has to untangle the mop on her head. She detests her freckles and red hair but tolerates them as long as she is free to play baseball and run with the boys everyday. Debbie has the challenge...
