The holy city itself was re-taken by the victorious arms. of Saladin; and all Palestine, except a few maritime towns, subdued. Nothing now remained of those boasted conquests, that had enflamed cnflamed the zeal os the western world; and nothing was to be seen, of what near a century before had employed the efforts of all the noblest spirits of Europe. The western Christians were astonished at this intelligence; the whole audience burst into tears; the two kings laid aside their animosity, and agreed to convert their whole attention to the rescuing Jerusalem from the hands of the insidels. They instantly therefore took the cross; many of their...
