Springboard Ventures, Inc., United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Social media marketing emerged - almost overnight - as an accessible, affordable way to grow businesses. The questions are no longer whether or when to use social media for marketing, but how to use it and use it well. Yet social media presents real challenges; it masks the ability to see body language and other important communication cues. How can you ensure you are being real online? If you're not, you'll struggle to have meaningful engagement and to build relationships that drive businesses growth. And how can you tell if others are being real? Social Media is full of wolves in sheep's clothing. We've all met some online and this was a key motivator in the writing of this book on using social media for relationship marketing. Get Real, People! How to Use Social Media for Real-ationship Marketing(c) shows you how being real is the key to marketing with social media and to creating a more enjoyable and authentic life. Whether you're a business owner, team leader, marketing professional, recovering sales shark, public relations firm, non-profit, or just someone communicating through social media marketing that wants to know what now? you'll benefit from this book. You'll learn how to: - Grow your business with REAL-ationship(c), social media marketing - Use social media to build businesses with longer-lasting, more meaningful engagement, communities relationships - Know what your digital body language communicates about you how you're perceived interpreted - Create an online marketing presence that attracts people you want to work with who want to work with you - Profit from the currencies of accountability, trust being your real self - Stop the time wasting,...
