Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.What happens when the boy next door grows up and moves to New York City? If you re a teacher like Hannah Miller, you sign up for summer professional development and plan your first visit. But when Charlie McMillan comes home after years away a few weeks before her trip, he s not the young boy she remembered. Taken aback at the heat between them and caught off guard by the signals he seems to be sending despite the ring on his finger, she comforts herself with the knowledge his wife will be with them for the five weeks she ll be in his Queens apartment. When she arrives in the city to find Nadia on a trip of her own and Charlie more flirtatious than ever, she s overcome with questions and insecurities. Should she believe him when he explains his marriage isn t what it seems? And if she believes, does it make the crazy attraction to a younger man acceptable? Is she ready for something new after recently leaving a not so healthy relationship,...
