Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Building Plans for Poultrymen and Practical Methods of Poultry Raising Each year finds many new recruits in the poultry industry. The poultry journal solicitor with his aggressive friendly way meets you at the county fair or poultry show and asks you point blank. Do you raise chickens? You admit that you were raised on the farm and although you do not happen to be so fortunate as to be raising fowls now you certainly have a feeling that way. Accordingly you subscribe for the journal on the strength that it will tell you all about how to raise poultry. But many of the poultry journals have too much of the professional air about them and the person starting with fowls finds himself in deep water as far as understanding what a great many articles are about. Too many of us forget the time we got our first setting of eggs and just how eagerly we read every word we could find on how to rear chicks, feed, make coops and all the varied problems of...
