Chaosium., Oakland, 2014. Condition: New. First edition, TPBO, Trade paperback, New, Fifteen stories "Extreme Planets is a science fiction anthology of stories set on alien worlds that push the limits of what we once believed possible in a planetary environment. Visit the bizarre moons, dwarf planets and asteroids of our own Solar Systems, and in the deeper reaches of space encounter super-Earths with extreme gravity fields, carbon planets featuring mountain ranges of pure diamond, and ocean worlds shrouded by seas hundreds of kilometres thick. The challenges these environments present to the humans that explore and colonise them are many, and are the subject matter of these tales." Contributors include David Brin, Gregory Benford, Peter Watts, Brian Stableford and others.
